The Rationale behind conducting this workshop:

The IQAC, SRTMU has initiated the idea of organising the workshop as it has found that 318 colleges in its jurisdiction have not gone for Accreditation and Assessment due to various reasons thus to make them aware about the NAAC processes a user friendly process. The participants for this workshop were Principals and Teachers of Affiliated Colleges of the University. The colleges were instructed to nominate participants atleast two : a Principal or nominee /representative and a Teacher involved in NAAC process of the college by the affiliated of The university arranged this workshop with a view to create the understanding of Accreditation and Assessment procedures of NAAC and to formulate necessary practices and organise the system.

How it was done? The well planned sessions:

The workshop consisted of night sessions of 60 minutes each excluding the inaugural session and the valedictory session. The interaction was done through the power point presentation, lectures and discussions. The topic for these sessions included documentation for NAAC Accreditation; Curricular Aspects; Teaching-Learning and Evaluation; Interaction with the delegates by discussion panel; Research; Consultancy and Extension; Infrastructure and Learning Resources; Student support and Progression; Governance, Leadership and Management and at the last interaction and discussion on Best Practices and Environment. The Principal of NAAC graded big college was invited for sharing their experiences of NAAC documentation and process. The Principal invited for participatory discussion was Prof. Ganesh N. Shinde, Hon'ble Pro-Vice Chancellor, S. R. T. M. University. They handled the queries of participants related to NAAC procedure. The workshop sessions were planned in such a way that the regional and local aspects regarding Accreditation and Assessment process were also addressed apart from the general procedural understanding and appreciation.

The first output of this workshop:

The workshop has been successful as all the sessions resulted in organised and planned discussions and executed to perfection. A total of 132 numbers of participants have attended the workshop from 68 colleges. All the participants enthusiastically participated in the workshop and interacted with the resource persons and got satisfactory answers to their queries. The response and feedback of the participants was very encouraging. The participants' feedback forms were given to all participants. 91 feedback forms were collected from the participants. The analysis of this feedback form is given below in graphical form.

General suggestions of participants:

- 1) Such type of workshops should be arranged frequently faculty wise so that each college affiliated to this University will be inspired to go for NAAC accreditation.
- 2) Such workshops' duration should be at least one week.
- 3) Organize Short term course for IQAC-coordinator of colleges by University with help of NAAC, Bangalore.
- 4) Arrange such type of workshop for all faculties, students and management of the college.
- 5) Short term course on NAAC may be organized by IQAC office of SRTMU sponsored by UGC- TA &DA paid to participants.

The IQAC SRTMU would like to place on record that the enthusiasm of participants will certainly bring a chain of such workshops in future too.

Awareness workshop and its objectives

The effect of globalization, privatization and liberalization had started becoming visible in the field of higher education and everyone concerned has realized the importance of quality assurance in the context of the global competition. With higher education becoming an international service, there is growing concern the world over about quality, standards and recognition.

Consequent upon this trend, the debate on how benchmarks have to be evolved for ascertaining and assuring quality at different levels of higher education is significant. NAAC initiative to promote the concept of best practices benchmarking. It also set the stages of identification, dissemination, sustenance and adaptation of best practices and of their transference from one system to the other.

Accreditation involves the validation process in which universities, colleges, and other institutions of higher learning are evaluated. The process of accreditation is just one step, but a significant one is the march towards quality- a point of institutional introspection and external evaluation. The NAAC realizes that to fulfill its mandate of assuring the quality of higher education in India, it has to go beyond the mere conduct the process of accreditation.

The objective of conducting this awareness programme/workshop for the non-accredited colleges is to acquaint the colleges about the benefits of accreditation and to explain the colleges about the procedures to go for the accreditation.

Eminent Persons

The experts will be from NAAC Bangalore officials and peer team members.

Eligibility

The programme is mandatory for Principals and IQAC coordinators of Colleges affiliated to SRTM University, Nanded. The respective colleges have to bear the cost of their TA, DA etc..
